Ingoldsby Editorial

The new Black and Red
Had mustered and bred,
Reporters had sweated, Contributors bled
(Not to mention the tears that the Editor'd shed),
And now, though October had only just fled,
It awaited the feet of a fast native sprinter
To waft the MS straight to Morriss, the Printer.

For the format was fine, and it had all the frills on (The Tennis by C e — the Rugger by W n —
The Cricket, of course, by that competent penman,
The perennial W. R. and G. W n),
With the latest dispatches
On Meets and on Matches,
And bursting its seams
With successes in reams
Against numberless teams,
And all similar themes

(Though one tiresome Reporter had bungled, for (curse it!) he Revealed how a High School once "smeared" University).

What is more, just to quash the most carping inquisitor,
We hadn't forgotten to mention the Visitor.

But O what a sight for an eye that's censorial
Was that hardly old opener, the year's Editorial! —

So depressingly neat,
And compact and complete,
Without a false line, and with all the right feet,
Neither raucous nor wrangling,
Nor mis-shapen nor gangling —
Not a Pronoun misplaced, not a Modifier dangling —,
With its rhythm and rhyme,
That are not of this Time

(Which prefers the subconscious and not the sublime),
In a metre first fostered (and what could be hoarier?)
In the earlier years of the elder Victoria.

For verse MAY be Verse — modern critics concede it —
If you can't understand and can only just read it.

ENVOI

When your Editor, Prince, is committing a boo
(A term which we haven't much time for (have you?)),
And refuses to follow the prevalent norms,
But persists in pursuing the archaic forms
(Not, of course, an example to bring up the boys on),
You should take ruthless measures (we might suggest poison).

SCHOOL NOTES

The principal events of the school year are given in the Headmaster's Address, which is reported elsewhere, but the value of the new buildings cannot possibly be over-emphasized. Old Boys of even one year's standing only are astonished at the improved facilities, and those of us who live here now wonder how we managed beforehand without them.

The gymnasium, for example, is in use all day and every evening, and has already become an integral and indispensable part of the school. At the risk, however, of boring the reader with constant repetition — we still need much help, not only to pay for these buildings, but to continue with our plans for the incorporation of the swimming pool with the gym, and for a new library. The facilities of a few years ago would not bear comparison with those that we now enjoy, but there is still much to be done if we are to retain our pre-eminent position in this respect. Maintenance and operation costs have been notably increased, of course, and the Board of Governors has found it necessary to raise the fees to meet these growing costs. Out of these fees a sum will be set aside to amortize our bank indebtedness; but this alone will not be sufficient, and donations will be a necessity for some time to come. Most other schools operate on an annual deficit which has to be made up each year by outside donations. Until now we have avoided this, but the present circumstances make it essential.

The new buildings were officially opened by the Lieutenant-Governor on March 20th. at the conclusion of his Inspection of the Cadet Corps. The School is indeed pleased and honoured by the great interest which the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pearkes continue to show in it.

Despite the many activities, such as sporting events, the Exploration Club, ski-ing trips, etc., the year itself was comparatively quiet, but the impression gained was that of a very happy period wherein the prefectorial body exerted steady and tactful control, with very satisfactory results. With the exception of Fields and Fish, who had achieved the distinction of House Prefectship in only two years at the School, the remaining thirteen House or School Prefects averaged more than six years' service each between them, and doubtless it was this long familiarity with the School's traditions which enabled their functions to be carried out with such quiet and wholesome efficiency. It is hoped that the traditions which they have established will be maintained and improved still further by those now taking their place.

Academically the year's results were good. All the American members of the School obtained Freshmen standing in their respective Universities, while thirty out of thirty-two boys who entered Grade XII with full Grade XI standing achieved full Matriculation: in addition, three more Certificates were gained by boys who were carrying one or more Grade XI subjects. This year the old name of "Sixth Form" is being revived, since it embraces not only the normal Grade XII student, but also those who have a mixed or incomplete programme, or who may be relying solely on C.E.E.B. Exams. to obtain entrance to University. The revival of this old name in place of "Grade XII" will make evaluation of the year's results more accurate and meaningful, and indeed last year's results, evaluated on these lines, are very satisfactory.

Athletically it has been a good year. Only an unexpected, but fully-deserved, defeat at Shawnigan in the last Rugby game of the season marred it. Unfortunately, thirteen of the First Fifteen graduated in June, and this year, therefore, will obviously have to be a "building-up" period. So far, Group "A" looks promising, and it should not be long before we are back to form again.

Enrolment is in a similar situation. The big leave of Seniors has not been balanced fully by arrivals lower down, owing perhaps to increased fees, increased competition, etc., so that now we need boys to build up again. This is where the Old Boys can help. Keep in touch with the School and send along recruits to take the places you once occupied.

IN MEMORIAM

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mr. W. Thomas Keble, on October 19th., 1965, after a brief illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Keble, together with their son Anthony, came to University School in September 1956, to take charge of Harvey House, direct from St. Thomas's Preparatory School, Ceylon, of which he had been the Founder Headmaster. Later he moved out to Cordova Bay, but retained his Housemastership for some time and also his keen interest in the Juniors and their welfare; nor did his enthusiasm wane during his long association with the School. He retired in June 1964, but maintained his interest and association by taking Grade VII English classes every afternoon, until his final retirement in June, 1965.

No one who came in contact with him could fail to appreciate his kindly humour, his tolerance of the foibles of youth and his patience with their efforts, nor will his boys forget his stirring encouragement on the Football Field, and the many little kindnesses extended to them by himself and Mrs. Keble.

He is already missed, but he leaves behind the memory of a man who showered only kindness and warmth on those who were fortunate enough to know him.

To Mrs. Keble and Anthony the School extends its deepest sympathy.

SPEECH DAY

The last Speech Day Ceremony to be held in the School Gymnasium was in 1949; no one who was present on that occasion could have failed to notice the difference between it and that held this year in the new Gymnasium.

It was not only a question of size — the new one is at least twice as big — but of the whole impressive change for the better. It was, perhaps, most fitting that on this occasion we should have as our Guest of Honour The Rt. Reverend Henry D. Martin, D.D., formerly Bishop of Saskatchewan, who has in his own lifetime seen so much of change, and who, therefore, was able in his address to present some true and permanent values in this world wherein changes are being effected at such an incredible pace.

In the intervening years Speech Days have been held in the Assembly Hall, to the great discomfort of at least fifty per cent of the visitors crowded therein, but the new gym provides ample space for all, good acoustics and a most suitable setting.

Bishop Martin spoke principally to the boys themselves, taking Courage and Integrity as his themes. The address was extremely well received by all and, indeed, will be long remembered by many.

At the conclusion of the proceedings the Head Prefect, Donald Macdonald, thanked the Bishop, and Brigadier Cabeldu, Chairman of the Board of Governors, took the opportunity to speak on behalf of the School's Building Programme and the good work done by all concerned.

The Headmaster's Report is given below.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT SPEECH DAY — SPORTS DAY

June 5, 1965

Brigadier Cabeldu, Bishop Martin, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I began my report last year with the observation that we hoped it would be the last occasion when the success or otherwise of the prize giving would be at the mercy of the weather.

We now have this magnificent gymnasium wherein we need no longer worry over the hazards of wind and rain which have plagued us for so many years past and, although we have generally been fortunate in our weather, we cannot expect to be so always.

Thanks to the foresight of the Board of Governors and Mr. Logan Mayhew's able direction and your financial assistance, we now have not only this gymnasium with its rifle range, armouries, etc., beneath it, but also the finest of laboratories and new classrooms, and all that now remains is to finish paying for them. We must have made a good beginning since we have received no unpleasant letters from the bank and, if we can but continue to follow the example set by some of you parents and friends, we shall be "out of the wood" in no time.

The provision of these new facilities has enabled us to make considerable improvements to the old. To those who live here the changes seem but gradual and even, at times, slow, but, to those who left us only a short time ago, the changes are very apparent and considerable. Such old wooden buildings as remain have long outlasted their life and must be replaced ere long with stronger, better and pleasanter buildings. Meanwhile, we have much for which to be thankful and not least this gymnasium wherein we are now seated. The academic side has shown a marked improvement on 1963-64 and, though from last year's graduating class the school is proud of Tom Seeger's subsequent nomination to West Point, and the advanced placement of Jack Allen, which brought a special letter of congratulation to the school from the Dean of Students and the Head of the Biology Department at the University of Puget Sound, we are still happier with the general over-all picture. There is a greater seriousness of purpose among the seniors and an awareness of the increased competition brought about by the population explosion in their age group, and this is all to the good.

In the activities field we have had a good year. Our teams acquitted themselves well in rugby and basketball — indeed, the Junior basketball team reached the finals of the two Vancouver Island Junior Championships, which obviously promises well for the future. The First XV won 10 of their 12 matches, and tennis, swimming, cricket, have all had their share of success. This term the greater part of the school is most heavily engaged in track, and not only has the team defeated a number of High Schools but, last week, in Vancouver, retained possession of the Logan Trophy, which is the symbol of Track and Field supremacy among the Independent Schools of British Columbia — University School, Brentwood, St. George's, Vancouver, and Shawnigan Lake, who, incidentally, were placed in that order in the competition.

The annual Cadet Inspection was carried out this year by the Lieutenant-Governor and, somewhat to our surprise, it was well up to standard. I say surprise because the proportion of recruits to cadets was the highest on record, and the manner in which they drilled and worked to reach the standard set by their predecessors was most praiseworthy. There is no doubt the Corps has built up a wonderful tradition over the years and that each successive generation seems to maintain or enhance it.

Owing to the absence overseas of the regular troops at Work Point, we were unable to plan the normal Field Day, but the Navy came to the rescue and through the kindness of Admiral Stirling, Commander-in-Chief Pacific Command, the Corps enjoyed an afternoon at sea on H.M.C.S. Mackenzie, whose Commanding Officer is an Old Boy, Commander H. R. Wade, on whose staff is another Old Boy, Lieut. Roger Bernard.

With the new gymnasium we were fortunate to secure the services of Mr. John Arscott, for he has imbued the boys with his own enthusiasm and the standard achieved is already high, with better still to come.

It is good also to have shooting practice once more in our own school. Since the demise of the old shooting range — a former bowling alley — we have had to depend on the resources of the Bay St. Armoury and the kindness of the R.C.N., who transported us there and back. This year the Armouries were closed to us so that our new range, underneath this Gym, has come only just in time. We can look forward now to the resumption of shooting as a full-time major activity.

In other extra-curricular activities much has been done. The school newspaper, product of Grade XI, has improved in quality and encouraged Harvey House to emulate it. The Chapel has seen many fine services. Drama has once again appeared and there have been debates both Senior and Junior — in other words, there has been a good, healthy atmosphere of activity throughout the school.

This time last year we said good-bye to Mr. Mugridge, who was leaving to further his studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara. In the event, however, Mr. Mugridge postponed his move to Santa Barbara for a year, but to our regret he really will be leaving us this time and we shall miss him very much indeed. So, too, will we miss Mr. Wilson, who came to the school directly from Oxford seven years ago to “try his hand at teaching.” He has “tried his hand” with great success both in the classroom and outside it. He now wishes to widen his experience and has accepted an invitation to join the Faculty at St. Andrew’s, Aurora. He leaves with all our good wishes and happy remembrances.

Another change which we regret is the retirement of Mr. Harry Smith. When Mr. Smith retired as Principal of the Victoria High School — a post he held for 28 years — he was showered with honours, invitations and requests to give the benefit of his experience and profound scholarship elsewhere. These offers for the most part he declined. One day, however, I phoned him to ask his help. We were unexpectedly short of a teacher of English and I phoned Mr. Smith to enquire where — at such short notice — would he advise me to look for a replacement. He suddenly said “I will come and help you out” and come he did and, after eight years, the term “help us out” is very inadequate to describe the work he has done here.

We have been greatly honoured to have Mr. Smith on our Faculty, and the memory of English verse, declaimed as only he can, will stay long with those boys who were fortunate enough to have him as their teacher — and with me, too, for frequently have I paused en route somewhere to listen to “Sohrab and Rustum,” “The Scholar Gypsy,” “Dan McGrew” or, best of all, some Shakespearian character booming through the transom of his classroom door. (Henry Adams — “a teacher is for eternity, we can never tell when his influence ceases.”)

Thank you, Mr. Smith, for all you have done for us.

The great event of the year, of course, has been the construction of the new buildings and the renovation of the old. Demolition began last summer term and great was the din thereof. All through the summer vacation Mr. Wheaton's men laboured and, when fall term began, we were able to use first one classroom, then another, then one laboratory, then another and then the Assembly Hall once again and, finally, the whole building. All this time the foremen pushed and fretted and fumed with a personal interest and regard for our problems as though they were their own. Never, indeed, has any building been constructed with more goodwill between the builders and the school.

Meanwhile, the gym foundations were excavated, slowly the walls were raised and the roof completed; finally the floor was laid and then came the great day when the first gym practice could be held indoors.

Our school carpenter, Erwin Presthofer, did the woodwork of the Armouries and rifle range and the lockers and, lastly, fixed the old Honour Boards with the teams, cricket, rugger and gym and the captains of Cadets, of shooting and the rest, going back to 1907, firmly to the walls.

Old Boys will be proud and glad to see how well these treasured relics from the old gym look in their new surroundings.

May I, at this time, pay tribute, not only to Mr. Wheaton, the Contractor, and his team, but also to the Architects, Messrs. R. W. Siddall Associates, who, with a fine sense of atmosphere, have given us the modern without disturbing the old and, within the comparatively modest terms of our budget, have succeeded in designing buildings which complement those we already possessed. Too many planners today wish to sweep away everything in sight before considering anything new, but the fact that one of the first considerations of design was the preservation of the fine old tree on the quadrangle is indicative of the care and thought which were exercised in the planning and when, on March 20th., the Lieutenant-Governor officially opened the buildings by unveiling the Commemorative bronze plaque (itself a gift of the Architects), they must, I am sure, have felt the satisfaction which comes from a job well done.

Speaking of Old Boys, we congratulate Ted Latour on his success in the Diplomatic Corps; Colin Godfrey on his scholarship at Harvard; John Greenhouse on his Stanford Award; Anthony Keble on his $2000 travelling scholarship to Chile, Peru and Mexico; and Lawrence Devlin on his $5,000 Kellog Foundation Scholarship to the University of Chicago, where, I hope, he will find no evidence of price fixing of fees and the entrance gates already "in situ!"

Nicholas Etheridge obtained 1st Class Honours in History at the University of British Columbia and is going to the University of Aberdeen; Martin Petter to Oxford; and such familiar names as Michael Woollends, Iain Ogle, John Lucie-Smith and many others continue to appear with regularity in the Honours Lists at the Universities.

The success of the Old Boys is a matter of the greatest satisfaction and pride, but the true success, or otherwise, of a school lies not so much in the spectacular achievements of the few as in the general performance of the many and, in this respect I think this has been a good year. The School Prefects and the XX Club — who set the tone of the school as a whole — have ruled more by example than by force and, although early in the year we had many troubles to contend with, their leadership has, in the end, produced what can best be described as a “happy ship,” and a year on which we can look back with satisfaction as one of solid progress and achievement.

It remains for me now only to introduce our guests of honour, Bishop and Mrs. Martin:

To the School Bishop Martin requires no introduction, since he has already preached on more than one occasion in our Chapel, and for that reason we are, therefore, the more happy to have him with us today.

For 21 years, Dr. Martin administered his parish as Rector of St. George's, Winnipeg, until at last he was persuaded to accept a wider diocese and, for the next 20 years following, he was Bishop of Saskatchewan, covering a vast territory of 600,000 square miles with a population ranging in all its variety from the simple Eskimos of the North to the comparatively sophisticated citizens of his headquarters at Prince Albert.

With the pioneering that he has done and the wideness of his interest and influence, few men can have seen as much of the “real” Canada as Bishop Martin.

We are extremely glad that he and Mrs. Martin have now settled in Victoria, and it is with the greatest pleasure that I ask him to present the prizes and afterwards to give the address.

Ladies and gentlemen: Bishop Martin.

THE CHAPEL

While it is impossible to estimate the influence of the Chapel Services on the life of the School, yet, unquestionably, its central position in the school ground, the fact that it was built by the labour of the boys themselves and the interest that so many of them have in its various activities leave one with the assurance that those who saw the vision of a worthy Chapel, and who put their plans into execution, "builded better than they knew." Sunday, May 20th., 1962, is a day that will be long remembered in the history of the School, especially when the third Sunday in May, each year, is kept to commemorate the consecration of the building.

The past School Year saw several Services worthy of record:—

On Sunday, Oct. 8th., our Harvest Festival Thanksgiving was celebrated. The Chapel was beautifully decorated by the boys, many gifts of flowers and fruit were received and a great Service was held in which the School and a number of parents joined in thanksgiving for the bounty of Harvest and the other worthwhile things of life.

On Sunday, Nov. 8th., we held the Annual Service of Remembrance, when, as has been customary for many years, the Headmaster read Captain Harvey's letter to the School, and called the Roll of those who gave their lives in the World Wars and Korea. Memorial wreaths were offered by present and old boys of the School, and were received at the Altar by the Chaplain.

On Sunday, Dec. 13th., we held our annual Carol Service, "The Festival of the Nine Carols." The Lessons were read by the Headmaster, Mr. W. R. G. Wenman, Mr. I. Mugridge, Mr. R. W. Wilson, J. M. Tunnicliffe, M. A. Code, A. R. Hunter, P. C. Wilde and D. B. Macdonald. Solos were sung by W. Dyson ("The Shepherds' Farewell" by Berlioz) and Miss Pam Paver of St. John's Church Choir ("Christmas Song" by Hovanhess). The School Choir was augmented by members of the Choir of St. John's Church, and the music was under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Ansdell, School Music Master and Organist. It was indeed a Christmas Service that will be remembered for a long time to come.

On Sunday, Jan. 24., we honoured the memory of the late Sir Winston Churchill at a School Memorial Service.

On Sunday, May 16th., the School Choir, augmented by members of the Choirs of Christ Church Cathedral, St. Mary's, Oak Bay, and St. John's, all under the direction of Mr. Ansdell, sang a full Cathedral Evensong. The Canticles were sung to the festal setting in B Flat by Stanford; the boys' Choir sang "O Lovely Peace" by Handel; William Dyson sang "Oh that My Ways" by Maurice Greene, and the massed Choirs sang the anthem "O Thou the Central Orb" by Charles Wood. The Chaplain gave an address on "The Place of Music in Worship and Life."

On Sunday, June 6th., the Annual Speech Day Service was held, at which the Officers of the School Chapel who had completed their years of duty surrendered their Staves of Office, and the newly-appointed officers were were installed.

An event of interest to the School family took place on November 15th., when John Pearson Wilson, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilson, was baptized in the Chapel.

During the year we were pleased to welcome a number of visiting clergymen — the Rev. A. W. Gollmer, the Rev. Canon H. J. Jones, the Rev. Angus Cameron of Lundavra, the Right Rev. Henry D. Martin, the Rev. Doctor W. E. Ashley and the Rev. R. C. Mortimer, R.C.N. It is the Chaplain's opinion that not only is it good for the School to receive visits from such clergymen, but it also reminds us that the services of the Chapel are part of the services of the Church in the world.

During the year Holy Communion has been celebrated once each month. The School also made three visits to Evensong at St. Luke's Parish Church, thus maintaining a connection of more than fifty years between Parish and School.

Finally, our thanks go to all who have helped in any way with the Chapel Services, and the preparation for special Services during this past year.

The officers were as follows:

Chapel Prefect P. C. Wilde

Uerger A. R. Hunter

Sacristan T. C. Fields

Chaplain's Warden T. McK. Inglis

School's Warden R. D. Chaworth-Musters

C. E. F. W.

NOTE: Confirmation for 1965 will be held Sunday, Dec. 5th., at 2:30 p.m.

RUGBY FOOTBALL

FIRST FIFTEEN

The 1963-64 season ended with a memorable and successful tour of England and Wales. Season 1964-65 could not offer such an incentive, and finished with a crushing defeat at the hands of Shawnigan Lake. This season was, perhaps, something of an anti-climax, and it was frustrating to have a good back division left over from the previous year together with only two forwards. Simonson, Drum, Taylor and Crofton proved very hard to replace, and the season was really one long struggle for our pack, which lacked experience, height and weight. Holm and Price I were moved into the 1st. XV forwards from the 2nd. XV backs — a very difficult adjustment; and they must be congratulated. Barker I was a great asset, as usual, but the forwards only enabled him to be a very good scrum half, and he could have been even better with more protection. Lack of height in the forwards caused difficulty in the line-out, and we were seldom able to dominate in this phase. These remarks are not particularly complimentary to the forwards, and it must be recorded that they showed plenty of endeavour and always tried hard. Macdonald I had another steady year, and Hunter maintained his improvement from the previous season. Finally, Kjekstad deserves special mention. Lack of weight made his task difficult, but he played extremely well throughout.

In the back division there were fewer problems. Barker I and Meyer were playing together at half-back for a second year. Meyer improved steadily, but the new rules brought out a weakness in his defence. Wilde was forced to play in the centre for the first half of the season, and he did a good job, but after Christmas he moved to full back, where he was happier. Scholefield enjoyed a very good season, scoring 14 tries. Stephenson must be congratulated on his place kicking. As a centre he was not very thrustful, but as a place-kicker he was a match-winner. During the season he scored 99 points, 87 coming from his right boot.

Hardy II played full back before Christmas and looked quite promising. McCullough won his first team place after Christmas, and he, also, played quite well. Both Hardy II and McCullough gained valuable experience, and much will be expected of them this coming season, for 13 of this last team were in Grade XII.

Barker I was a very quiet Captain, but "Dog's" philosophy has always been that action speaks stronger than words.

Despite these criticisms, it must be noted that only Shawnigan Lake could beat us, and a 9-2 record is a good achievement. Shawnigan proved to be the best of the Independent Schools, and by their victory over us on their home ground they were most worthy winners of the Independent Schools' Trophy. We were at our best in the away game against St. George's, when our forwards gave their best display of the season to enable us to score 32 points. All three games against Brentwood College were closely contested, and they should be very hard to beat in 1965-66.

SECOND XV

Front Row: H. Brooke, A. Zedick, C. Dykes, R. Bapty (Capt.), J. Graham, T. Inglis, M. Seeger.

THIRD XV

Back Row: A. Peyton, A. Young, J. Garrigues, C. Willis, C. Penn, D. Von Dehn, J. Brinkley, J. Wenman.

The team was composed of Barker I (Captain), Macdonald I, Scholefield, Wilde, Stephenson, Fraser I, McCullough, Meyer, Lenfesty, Nelson I, Hardy I, Hunter, Price, Holm and Kjekstad.

Old Colours were Barker I, Macdonald I and Scholefield; new Colours were awarded to Wilde, Meyer, Kjekstad, Hunter, Nelson I and Stephenson.

FIRST FIFTEEN CHARACTERS

NELSON (hooker) — Although his hooking was not particularly outstanding, he was a very valuable forward. A fearless and willing performer, he always gave of his best.

LENFESTY (prop forward) — He is not built for speed, and it took him a long time to win an arduous battle with his own waistline. A hard-working forward, strong in the set scrums and surprisingly useful in the line-outs.

HARDY (prop forward) — He lacked the extra speed and fire to become an outstanding forward, but he was a useful performer.

MACDONALD (vice-Captain) (prop forward) — As the only forward of any experience he had the difficult task of leading an inexperienced pack. His unassuming nature did not help his cause. As a forward he was able to do a lot of hard work and still be able to back up plays and take a pass with skill. He never sought the limelight, but the hard work and encouragement he gave throughout the season cannot be overlooked.

HUNTER (second-row forward) — A strong and fast forward, he worked hard and set a good example. He proved to be useful in the line-out.

KJEKSTAD (wing forward) — He enjoyed a very good season. He is not very heavy and this proved to be a disadvantage, but he was always up with the ball, which enabled him to be useful in attack. He was fearless in defence.

HOLM (wing forward) — He is an extremely good scrum half, but with Barker owning that position he had to be found an alternative place. He is surprisingly fast and brought off some magnificent tackling. His line-out play showed improvement, as did his defensive kicking. He lacked experience of forward play, and unfortunately received an untimely injury.

PRICE (No. 8 forward) — The thought of a fourth year as a 2nd. XV wing three-quarter prompted him to become a No. 8 forward for the 1st. XV. A very willing performer, who worked extremely hard. All he lacked was experience in his position.

BARKER (Captain) (scrum half) — Well-built, strong and deceptively fast, he has all the physical attributes, but it is his quick thinking and coolness which makes him an exceptionally good player. An unassuming but reasonably effective Captain.

MEYER (fly half) — Sound rather than outstanding. He had a good understanding with Barker and was able to set the line moving well. He trained hard and developed his defensive kicking and speed off the mark. The new laws showed his defensive weakness from the line-outs.

SCHOLEFIELD (wing three-quarter) — He still tends to miss the occasional tackle by going into his man too fast and too early. Otherwise he has enjoyed a fine season. He trains hard and takes every game very seriously. A strong and very elusive attacking player.

STEPHENSON (centre three-quarter) — He lacks that aggressive spirit which is needed in this position. His play was adequate but not outstanding. His real value to the team was as a place-kicker, where he was a tremendous asset.

McCULLOUGH (centre three-quarter) — He spent the first half of the season in the 2nd. XV, where he developed more speed and confidence. His promotion was well-earned, and, although he still lacks experience, he should develop into a good centre, both in attack and defence.

FRASER (wing three-quarter) — A fast wing three-quarter with a good physique. His handling was still uncertain, and at times he was slow-thinking. However, his speed enabled him to score some good tries and his defence was adequate.

WILDE (full back or centre three-quarter) — A keen, lively performer, who has always seemed to enjoy the game, despite his lack of weight. He played well either at centre or full back. His defence in both positions was good and he brought off some good tackles, especially at full back. When playing in this position he was not afraid to join in attacking moves.

SECOND FIFTEEN

The 2nd. Fifteen could not produce a very inspiring record. During the first term the side played quite well, but after Christmas they lost the services of McCullough and Lenfesty, who were promoted to the 1st. Fifteen. The first two games after Christmas were tragic, but a lot of pride was regained at Shawnigan, when we played with much more spirit. The game was unfortunately lost in the last minute after we failed to take advantage of two glorious opportunities.

The outstanding player of the team was Graham, who toiled unflaggingly throughout the season. Bapty I gave good service as captain, despite the limited success of his side.

The team was composed of: Bapty I (captain), Dykes (vice-captain), Peyton I, Fish, Lisez, Payne I, Bapty II, Graham, Vallance, Seeger, Zedick, Meredith I, Inglis, Langdon and Ridgway.

THIRD FIFTEEN

We began the season strongly, and won all matches until we met Shawnigan Lake School. In this game our lack of experience showed up and we were soundly and deservedly beaten. But we came back and, after several easier games, met Shawnigan again on our home ground. We led until the final minute, when a Shawnigan break-away brought five points. This was a wonderful encounter, in which the whole team excelled.

Timmis I is to be congratulated on his tireless leadership, and Brooke and Hardy II on playing for the 1st. XV. Many boys who learned the game this year showed great potential for the future.

Results were: played 12, won 8, lost 4, points for 147 — against 55.

R. J. C.

FOURTH FIFTEEN

The 4th. XV played inconsistently, but on the whole had a successful season. Weaker opposition was beaten convincingly and in good style, but we failed to rise to the occasion against hard-tackling and hard-running teams. Many changes had to be made in the side, and many inexperienced players learned the hard way — perhaps the best way.

Results were: played 6, won 4, lost 2, points for 118 — against 25.

R. J. C.

FIFTH AND SIXTH FIFTEENS

The 5th. XV was unfortunate in that its fixtures against the other independent schools were limited to two matches against St. George's. The team won both these games by considerable margins (17-0 and 27-3) and showed some promise in doing so. Roberts captained the team well, and with Filtness, another good front-row forward, Burnite, a wing three-quarter, and Scott, a centre, earned a place in the 4th. XV towards the end of the season.

A 6th. XV also took the field in one match against St. George's, whom it beat 6-3.

COLTS FIFTEEN

The Colts had a very successful season indeed. In the eight matches which the team played it seldom appeared in trouble, and almost never looked in danger of losing. This fact is born out by the comfortable margins of victory in most of the games.

It was encouraging to see a team made up largely of younger boys producing such a fine team effort, for, in spite of the good performances of many individuals, every member combined well with the others and played unselfish rugby. Because of this, it is, perhaps, wrong to single out any players for particular mention. But reference must be made to the good work of Featherstone, the Captain, who worked tirelessly among the forwards; also to Barker II, who proved a fine stand-off half and who alone scored over a third of the team's total points, most of them in penalties and conversions.

These were, however, only two members of an excellent team whose performance must give great hope for school rugby in the next few years.

Results were: played 8, won 8, lost 0, points for 116, against 22.

JUNIOR COLTS FIFTEEN

The side started the season well with a convincing win against St. George's, but they never came on as expected. Shawnigan Lake School proved to be too strong on two occasions, and the return against St. George's was also lost.

In the pack Stelck and Kraus put in much solid work and were consistently good, while Templeton and Clack also did some useful things. Behind the scrum Fitzgerald and Timmis II were prominent. There was much worthy individual effort, but the backs were never really together, and determination in defence was noticeably lacking.

W. R. G. W.

"95-105 LB." FIFTEEN

Under the captaincy of E. Payne the team performed well during the season, although it seemed to lack the final thrust sufficient to carry it over the line. Thwarted on many occasions on the opposition's goal posts, with a little luck they could well have turned the tables in three matches. Points were for 11, against 23.

CRICKET FIRST XI

Back Row: G. Timmis, E. Hardy, P. Stephenson, C. Peyton, R. H. Barker,

CRICKET

The season was disappointing in that, for one reason or another, it was only possible to arrange four fixtures. However, there were a spirit and a keenness exhibited which were noticeably lacking last year, and these were due, in large measure, to Kjekstad, who led the side with rare enthusiasm. Not only was he a very useful performer on the field, but his general cheerful approach to the many problems which beset the game was most praiseworthy. For the second year he was awarded the prize presented by the University School Incogs for the best all-round cricketer in the School.

Of the four matches played two were won, one was drawn and one was lost. Barker II and Timmis II, who opened the batting, were a most promising pair, while Kjekstad and Stephenson, who both averaged 16, were the chief run-getters. Wenman did not have the best of luck with the bat, but led the bowlers, his 13 wickets costing 81 runs. He also took seven catches in four games. Peyton I, a new boy, strengthened the attack, while Hardy II was also very useful with the ball. In general the batting was too timid, and failure to punish the bad ball proved costly in the final game against Shownigan. The fielding was never more than adequate.

Wenman was awarded his Cricket Colours, and his side was successful in winning the Clayton Cup, which has been competed for by teams within the School since 1912. The House Competition, run on a knock-out basis, was won by Winslow House, who defeated Barnacle and Bolton easily.

The 1965 XI was as follows: E. Kjekstad (Captain), J. E. L. Wenman, C. B. Holm, P. C. Wilde, P. S. Stephenson, C. B. Lenfesty, R. H. Barker, E. L. Hardy, C. S. W. Peyton, R. G. Barker and S. M. Timmis.

FIRST ELEVEN MATCHES

SCHOOL v. OAK BAY C.C.

The School were successful against Oak Bay in the opening game. The visitors were not a strong side and, when the early batsmen fell to Wenman (five for 20), a small score resulted. When the School batted Timmis I showed patience and skill in defence in his first match, and the School won by five wickets, batting on to score 73.

SCHOOL v. SHAWNIGAN LAKE SCHOOL

Playing away, the School had much the worst of a drawn game. Shawnigan batted first, and their early batsmen scored steadily, but later on wickets fell quickly and a score of 113 for eight at the declaration was smaller than seemed likely at one time. Wenman bowled 20 overs, taking four for 42, and Hardy II also bowled creditably. The fielding was adequate. The School lost Kjekstad very early, and, although Wenman contributed 18, they were always struggling, and in the end were lucky to save the game.

SCHOOL v. ST. GEORGE'S SCHOOL

Playing in Vancouver the School won easily by eight wickets. The School fielding was slovenly and dropped catches helped St. George's to reach 75. When the School batted, Barker II showed very promising form, while Kjekstad and Stephenson scored freely on the very small ground.

SCHOOL v. SHAWNIGAN LAKE SCHOOL

The return match against Shawnigan Lake, played at home, was the best game of the season, and was lost by 14 runs. Peyton I had a good match, taking four for 26, and Shawnigan were in a bad way until an eighth-wicket partnership improved matters for them. Timmis II again defended stubbornly when the School batted, but of the others Kjekstad alone reached double figures, the middle of the order treating some very mediocre bowling with undue respect.

FIRST ELEVEN CHARACTERS

KJEKSTAD (Captain) — An enthusiastic and intelligent Captain, who kept wicket very adequately, though not expertly. With the bat he had a good season. His defence is good and he has some very fair off-side strokes. On the leg side he tends to follow the ball rather than hit it, and is very prone to be leg before to a ball on his leg stump. Very quick and alert between the wickets.

WENMAN — Very promising with the bat, he possesses some fine strokes, particularly behind point and outside his legs. He does not like the ball on his leg stump: here there is a tendency to play across, or be l.b.w. playing tentative strokes. With the ball he has picked up a little pace with increased stature. He tends to look down, however, on delivery, and must learn to keep his eyes on the wicket. An excellent fielder, particularly in the air.

HOLM — He never came on as expected in any department. As a batsman he insisted on playing off the back foot, and failed to use his reach to attack the bowling. With the ball he was capable of bowling a really good one occasionally, but his action was awkward and jerky and his direction and length suffered.

WILDE — He fell off badly this year and seldom looked capable of making runs. He was keen and active in the field, but his catching was very faulty.

STEPHENSON — Much more successful with the bat than heretofore. His defence has improved and he possesses some productive strokes on the off. Very weak on the leg side, where he remains uncertain and passive.

HARDY II — A promising bowler with a nice action and the ability to move the ball in the air. He should take many wickets if he can improve his control and develop more hostility. He can hit the ball hard, but must learn to hit straight and develop some strokes on the off side. In the field he lacks anticipation.

PEYTON I — A useful bowler with a nice action, he keeps the ball well up to the batsman. More determination and hostility would make him even more successful. Lacks confidence with the bat but will improve with experience. Adequate in the field.

BARKER I — Possesses few strokes but can be stubborn in defence. Usually very dependable in the field.

LENFESTY — He has had a very disappointing season. His defence is fair, though he plays back too much, but his attacking strokes are very primitive. In the field his reactions are very slow.

BARKER II — A batsman of real promise. He has the necessary patience, a good defence and has developed shots all round the wicket. Rather slow in the field.

TIMMIS II — He has made a very promising start. His defence is good, though he tends to play back too much. He will make more runs with increased stature and more attention to forward play. Rather lacking in anticipation and concentration in the field, but he might yet keep wicket adequately.

COLTS ELEVEN

Colts cricket was not of a high standard this year, though several boys showed promise, notably Payne II, who captained the side for the four matches.

We played two matches against Glenlyon, who beat us comfortably on both occasions, and two against Shawnigan Lake, when the teams were more evenly matched. However we lost both of these games too.

For many boys this was their first introduction to cricket, and so I hope that, although the results were not very satisfactory this year, they will improve in the future.

N. C. B. C.

JUNIOR CRICKET

Junior Cricket consisted of two groups, all the boys being in Grades VII and VIII. Most of them were playing cricket for the first time. The Summer Term was extremely short and busy, so progress was not particularly impressive. Three matches were played, the first against a Glenlyon School XI and the second two against Shawnigan Lake School, when we fielded two teams.

McKimm II made a good Captain. He showed keenness and great promise, and his 23 runs against Shawnigan Lake were well scored. Conduit bowled well against Glenlyon, but he tended to be erratic. Bedford practised hard and made good progress. Way, Killick and Tunncliffe, all Grade VII boys, look quite promising. Five boys were able to take advantage of the expert coaching of Khan Mohammed, the Pakistan Test Cricketer.

The following played in the first team: McKimm II (Captain), Conduit, Bedford, Smith III, Tunncliffe, Burns, Way, Kraus, Killick, Hoyt, Keil and Lauder.

BASKETBALL

This season's team was, for the most part, a young and inexperienced one, and there were many gaps left by the loss of last year's players. This was noticeable especially in the lack of "length" of the team, for Fish was the only member of this side with the height usually associated with basketball players.

This weakness, added to the lack of training facilities owing to the lateness of completion of the new gymnasium, meant that the team got off to a bad start in the pre-Christmas games. By the end of the Fall Term the Team had lost all its games and was playing badly and dispiritedly.

With the beginning of a new term, however, its attitude seemed to change and its fight returned, so that teams which had previously beaten us conclusively found themselves either beaten in turn or forced to play basketball of a standard previously unnecessary. This was a most heartening change, and the result was that the Spring games were both more successful and more enjoyable.

Colours were re-awarded to Fish and Meyer; new Colours were McCullough and Rosenberry.

Summary: played 15; won 5; lost 10; points for 655, against 798.

I. M.

FIRST STRING CHARACTERS

MEYER (Captain) (guard) — He had the extremely difficult task of captaining a weak team, but, in spite of this, he never allowed the standard of his play, or his efforts, to fall below a very high level. He set a fine example to his team in all aspects of the game, and it was largely due to him that the team improved so much after Christmas.

WILT (guard) — He is a fine natural basketball player who, when so inclined, can produce excellent performances. He tends, however, to rely too frequently on his own individual ability, and to forget that success in this game depends on team play. He seems, nevertheless, to be overcoming this tendency, and I hope that next year he will be a most useful member of the team.

McCULLOUGH (forward) — He was, perhaps, one of the most improved players in the team, and gained his place in the first string through hard work and good, tenacious play. While his technical skill was, possibly, not so great as that of some other members, he made up for this by always playing hard and never giving up. He thoroughly deserved his Colours at the end of the season.

FISH (centre) — His play was, perhaps, weakened by his knowledge that the success of the team depended almost entirely on his own success, for he was the only member of the team with the height to challenge other tall players. He had a good season, however, and maintained an impressive scoring average. He might have done even better had he attempted more often to drive through the centre to the basket, rather than shooting from the outside.

ROSENBERRY (forward) — He was undoubtedly the success of the season. Coming regularly into the first string late in the season, he was an immediate success, and showed good scoring ability from anywhere on the court. He is still, however, relatively inexperienced, tending to panic in tight situations, and hence doing foolish things. This does not detract from his great promise, and he should be a considerable asset in future days.

ZEDICK (forward) — An unfortunate injury shortly before Christmas lost him his place in the side. Still hampered by this after Christmas, he was never able to regain his regular position in the first string, for his break from the games seemed to reduce his fitness. As a result, though effective for short periods, he never consistently showed the form which his early play had led us to expect.

I. M.

UNDER 16 BASKETBALL

This season, for the first time, an under 16 team played in regular competition with other schools. The new departure proved to be an unqualified success.

No matches were played until after Christmas, because of the difficulties of finding opposition, and because Mr. Lorimer was unable to give the team enough time during the Fall Term. But once it began playing it went from strength to strength. In addition to a number of exhibition games against local schools, the team entered the Lower Island Tournament, from which last year's team had been eliminated without winning a game. In this competition we placed second to Central Junior High School, thus qualifying for the Island Tournament. In this, too, we placed second, this time to Chemainus High School, after having beaten the favourites in the semi-final.

The team's play in both these Tournaments was quite magnificent. They were not highly rated in either competition, but, by playing hard, spirited basketball, they managed to do better than any of us had expected, and to bring great credit to themselves and to the School. It is, perhaps, wrong to single out any particular players in this team, but mention should be made of the fine captaincy and good play of Watkins I, and the excellent work done by Donaldson II. Both these players and the rest of the team are to be congratulated on a first-class season of which they have every reason to be proud.

Summary: played 12; won 7; lost 5; points for 465, against 462.

TENNIS

This term we have again had a large group, numbering forty boys. It has been encouraging to see so many of these improve their game. Much of this progress must be attributed to Mr. Gordon Hartley, who came four times a week to give us the benefit of his knowledge and enthusiasm.

The team played in five matches and won two, all five being closely contested. They saved their best tennis for the School Tournament, in which Watkins II cleaned the board with stylish and forceful play. He and the Captain, Houston, are to be congratulated on being awarded their Colours. Way won the Junior Beginners' Tournament, and, along with several others, shows great potential.

SKI-ING

Last year's report ended with hopes for a bright future. It came! We managed to fit in five excellent trips, three to Mount Baker and two to Crystal Mountain. Many boys enjoyed good accommodation and snow conditions, ski-ing tirelessly. Two members of the staff enjoyed the former, cursed the latter and tired amazingly quickly! The boys showed the way down the slopes, and we all enjoyed ourselves immensely.

TRACK AND FIELD

The standard of performance set in 1964 had been extremely high and, although many from that team were to return, it was going to require much in the way of hard effort to equal previous achievements. With this in mind, we began training in March, determined to bring off another successful season.

In the opening match with Brentwood College we took first place in all but one of the track events. In the relays we won comfortably, and it was in this branch that we hoped to gain valuable points throughout the season. Against Victoria High School, however, we lost the 4 x 110, but recovered from this with such outstanding performances as Fraser's 10.0 second 100 yards and 23.0 second 220 yards. It was in this meet also that Zedick beat the School shot record with a put of 49' 2¾". Against Esquimalt High School the high standard was maintained, and for the third meet in succession it was pleasing to see the Barker-Lisez combination gaining first and second places in the pole vault. The opposition provided by Claremont High School was not quite up to expectations, but in spite of this our standard was not lowered in any way. Fraser's thigh injury, aggravated at Esquimalt, kept him away from this and all subsequent meets. This was a great blow to Neil and to us all, but it was a challenge which the team accepted willingly. Price I took over as our main sprinter and proved to be more than capable. Fish's 52.6 second 440 yards and the Barker-Lisez 11-foot leaps were outstanding features of this meet.

Then came the Quadrangular Independent Schools Meet in Vancouver. The School's win was convincing, and due entirely to the real depth in the team and its complete success in the relays. Every member rose to the occasion and, if one had to select individual efforts, then Zedick's 145'6" discus throw, Fish's 51.8 second 440 yards and Holm's 21'4" broad jump should be mentioned.

But the real test was still to come, for, on June 3rd., we took on Oak Bay High School, the City and All-Island Public School Champions. The meet was a tense one with the state of the scoring changing constantly. A win in the 4 x 110' and an equalling of the 440 yards School record of 51.4 seconds by Fish were comforting, but we were down in other events. Even Wilde's personal best 880 yards time of 2m. 3.5 secs. was sufficient only for second place. Eventually the result was decided by the high jump, and the tied final score was a just climax to a great meeting. It was something of a foregone conclusion that, when we combined with Oak Bay High School against Shawnigan Lake and Cowichan High School, we would come away convincing winners and retain the Leslie Roberts Trophy.

For all who have represented the School Track Team this has been a memorable season. My sincere thanks go to all Staff members who have kindly assisted by officiating at home meets and, in particular, to Ian Mugridge for his unsparing efforts on the administrative side and his faithful support on all occasions.

I am grateful also for the help and enthusiasm of pole-vault coach Gerrard Dumus. Finally, the support of Captain Fraser I and Vice-Captain Wilde cannot be underestimated in any way.

The following have represented the School: Fraser I, Wilde, Barker I, Fish, Holm, Zedick, Meyer, Lisez, Price I, Wilt, Macdonald I, Bapty I, Bapty II, Garrigues, Rosenberry, Nutting, Ridgway, Leppman, McKim I, Smith I, Gray, Carpenter, Scholefield and Burnite.

Colours were again awarded to Barker I, Fraser I, Fish, Holm, Wilde, Wilt and Zedick. New colours were Lisez, Meyer and Price I.

SPORTS DAY

June 5th. brought a beautiful day and the promise of high-quality performances. In the first championship event, the 120 yards hurdles, Fish beat his own School Record, and other Records were to fall, particularly in the under-14 section. Herr's 12.1 100 yards and 28.1 220 yards, Killick's 2m. 32.1s. 880 yards and Winfields's 67.8 440 yards all dealt convincingly with the previous "bests."

The 46.9 4 x 110 yards House Record by Bolton was exceptionally pleasing, but it was the over-all depth of the Barnacle Team which gave them the Inter-House Championship and the West Trophy.

The results were as follows:

OPEN

100 yards (St. Luke's Cup):

1. Fish (Bo) (10.2s.); 2. Price I (Bo); 3. Bapty I (Wi).

220 yards (Giolma Cup):

TRACK AND FIELD RECORDS

We proudly record the existence of at least one regular reader. Our request, last year, for criticism of the details of this column brought response from T. H. B. Yaryan (1958-63), who questioned his Discus distance, as quoted by us. His appeal was upheld by our special Board of Recorders (a nervous and brow-furrowed individual) and an amendment will be found below. It has been made with our humble apologies. Incidentally, T. H. B. Y. hurled the thing an indecent 154' 4½" on one occasion, but we understand that this feat cannot figure here, as he was competing independently and not at a School Meet.

Further objections, from any quarter, will receive our best attention. Indignation will be welcomed, as evidence of interest shown. Moreover, any "onus" concerned will be ultimately and boldly transferred to the shoulders of our original Statistician, who is now 8,000 miles away.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

The School Team performed well in all its eight meets. The emphasis was on depth, and it was pleasing that on no occasion could one really predict which team member would lead the rest.

It was surprising, therefore, and most disappointing that we could place only third in the Independent Schools Championship at Brentwood College.

The team consisted of: Wilde (Captain), Wilt, Graham, Clack, Gray and Dennis.

SENIOR CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP

On April 5th. there was a great deal of speculation as to who would win this year's race. The course, approximately $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles long, was much drier and, therefore, faster than in the previous year. For the first $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles the leaders were battling together, and the result was completely in the balance. But, with Mount Tohnie in front of them, it was Barker I who slowly left the rest of the field behind, proving, as he entered the School gates, that he had much in reserve. His time was 27m. 48s. Wilt finished second and Gray third.

The inter-House results were:

- | | |
|-------------|-------------|
| 1. Bolton | 1614 points |
| 2. Winslow | 2947 points |
| 3. Barnacle | 3047 points |

JUNIOR CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP

This year, for the first time, the Junior Race was made open to all boys under 15 on the day of the event. The winner was to receive the Robertson Cup. As expected, Andrews II proved to be too strong for the rest of the field, but it must be noted that the Grade VII runners generally performed exceptionally well. In fact the first three were from this grade. The distance was 3.6 miles.

Andrews II (Barnacle) was first, Killick (Barnacle) second and Rainsford (Bolton) third.

GYMNASTICS

In the winter months much time was spent on Gymnastics in the weekly P.T. periods. The basic fundamentals learned here gave the opportunity for further participation outside school time. The Gymnastic Club met every Wednesday evening, and in January the Senior Club members gave a display during the interval of a school basketball match. The following week the Juniors produced a similar performance before an invited audience. The emphasis, in both these displays, was on vaulting and agility.

The more specialized form of gymnastics at the competitive level was encountered, first, in a match against Brentwood College in the new gymnasium. We won this event quite convincingly. In the Independent Schools Tournament we placed third, but, I feel sure, gained much valuable experience.

Finally, on Cadet Inspection Day, a very large group gave a display of rigid calisthenics and movement, combined with some fine individual performances on mats and over the apparatus generally.

My thanks go to Kjekstad, who captained the School Team well and gave a great deal of time to the sport.

The following represented the School: Kjekstad (Captain), Harris, Bapty II, Clark I, Barr I, Lisez, Watkins II, Mahon and Hargiss II.

Colours were awarded to Kjekstad and Harris.

A fine trophy for the Inter-House Competition was very kindly presented by Dr. Kjekstad. The accent, this year, was on variety and the exploration of all types of gymnastics. With this in mind, the Inter-House Competition was a display contest so that all aspects of the sport could be catered for.

The preparation for this, by all boys concerned, was lengthy, and the three teams are to be congratulated on their performances.

The results were: 1. Bolton 301; 2. Barnacle 288; 3. Winslow 266½.

THE CORPS

The Corps was again organized on a Battalion basis, with two companies of three platoons each and the Band. "A" Company contained all 2nd. and 3rd. year Cadets, with "B" Company taking all the recruits. There were only three Sergeants left from last year, which led to many unexpected promotions. The Officers and N.C.O.s acquitted themselves well, despite lack of knowledge. Strength of the Corps was 180 Officers and Men.

General efficiency was greatly enhanced by the taking over of new quarters under the Gym for Cadet Stores. The Quartermasters and Armouries Staff particularly needed the new rooms, as space had been hard to come by in previous years. New Band and Orderly rooms came into existence as well. In addition, a new Range had been constructed so that Shooting could again be carried out on our own ground. These new facilities raised the general handling and efficiency of the Unit to the indispensable point.

For the first time instruction was started in the intricate parts of the F.N. 7.62 mm. semi-automatic rifle, the standard weapon of the Canadian Army. Map Reading was started again in earnest, but it still has a long way to go before it will be perfected.

The Corps maintained a fast pace in drill, with "B" Company beginning rifle drill just before Christmas. We were fortunate in having Drill Instructors from the Queen's Own Rifles to help us.

Inspection Day was again arranged before Easter, which meant that our programme had to be accelerated. The Dress Rehearsal is best left unmentioned. The Day itself (March 20th.) was different, and produced a first-class show. The Corps was inspected by the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, the Hon. G. R. Pearkes, who officially opened the new School buildings afterwards. Instead of the usual First Aid Display an impressive Gymnastic Demonstration was put on in the new Gym by "B" Company. The Guard of Honour had been reorganized into a two-division Guard and, together with the Flag Party, also provided a tremendous show.

After Easter, Guard and Band practised for the "Sunset Ceremony." Shooting was late in starting, owing to tardy completion of the new Range. "B" Company continued its First Aid lectures; exams were written rather late in the year. Perhaps it would be better, in future, if First Aid were introduced at the beginning of our yearly operations.

In past years we have had our Field Days in conjunction with Staffs from Work Point Garrison. But this year the Queen's Own Rifles had gone to Cyprus. Luckily the Navy came to our rescue. On May 12th. we boarded H.M.C.S. Mackenzie, a Destroyer Escort, for an afternoon cruise. We witnessed mortar-firing and boat and "man-overboard" drills. We are much in debt to the Navy for all their good offices.

The Officers of the Corps were invited to Government House by the Lieutenant-Governor on May 15th. They witnessed the Investiture of the Order of St. John's Ambulance.

On June 12th. our Parent Regiment, the Canadian Scottish, had its Annual Inspection on our grounds. They showed us how they could be ready for an Inspection with one day's work only. They were inspected by Brigadier Danby, B.C. Area Commander. After the Inspection, demonstrations were carried out on the Quad, involving drill and lectures.

Once again a flow of trained Cadets will be coming back to the Corps after a Summer's training at Vernon. They attend a six-week-course camp there, learning weapon-training and basic organization. Three Cadets are attending the Cadet-Leader course (First-Year Cadets) and the fourth the Cadet-Leader Instruction course (Second-Year Cadets). A party of eight is going up this year, to gain an interesting experience.

The success of the Corps has been mainly due to our two Instructors. Many thanks must go to Capt. R. W. Wilson, who is leaving us for Aurora, for all the hard work that he has done for the Unit in the last few years. I am sure that the Cadet Corps there will benefit from his experience and efforts. Mr. Storr, luckily for "No. 170", will be staying on. Frankly, we do not know what the Corps would do without him. The "paper-work" that he performs is astounding, and sincere thanks must go to him for all his toil. We must also thank the Matrons for all their "sewing-on-of-Badges."

Lt. Wilde again brought the "Best Platoon" Cup to No. 1, and must be congratulated, together with his Platoon, for doing so well. Stick

Men were Cadet Davis III ("B" Company), Cadet Cousens I ("A" Company) and Cadet Davis II (Band). Stick Man on the Sunset Ceremony was Cadet Mahon, from the Band.

The Cadet Staff was as follows:

NOTE

"Vernon" has now dispersed, and the Corps Notes would be incomplete without congratulations to the School contingent, which put up a first-class show in all departments. Members of "170" held positions of responsibility as Officers, W.O.s and N.C.O.s; and individual mention might well be made of the following incidental achievements:

W. O. II Green — Award for Most Proficient Cadet in Battalion:
second in Award for Best Cadet in Western Command.

Cdt. Peyton — Captain of Bravo II Coy.'s Champion Volley Ball Team: First in Intermediate Back Stroke at Swimming Meet.

Sgt. Roberts — Award for Best Intermediate Swimmer in Golf Coy.

Cdt. Stelck — Second in Senior Back Stroke: Member of winning Medley Relay Team.

SHOOTING

This year, for the first time in many years, the School was again able to enjoy Shooting within its own grounds. It is doubtful if many of the 1965 students will remember the simple wooden structure which served as a Shooting Range under the late Mr. C. L. Cropper, who for so long did so much for the School through the Corps, and who often allowed small groups of us, the Juniors of ten years ago, to watch the Seniors shoot. Hundreds of Cadets learned to handle a rifle with respect and confidence in this building, and it was sadly missed when it finally fell prey to the wrecking crew.

During the intervening years a curtailed shooting programme was carried out, using the facilities at Bay Street Armouries. Finally, in the Autumn of 1964, the luxurious new gymnasium was completed, and the following Spring the new Range in the basement was made available for Recreational Shooting. Our new Range, with its double-decked firing platforms, allowing six boys to fire on each of the three lanes (instead of the usual three or four), is a far cry from the Range of years ago; and the new Armouries, just a few steps away, permit rifles and ammunition to be stored near at hand, and ready for immediate use.

Unfortunately the Summer Term was much shorter than usual, and it was not possible to arrange a complete Range Programme. However, Recreational Shooting was carried out by as many of the Cadets as possible. Because of the lack of time, and the conflicting time-tables of other sports, very few outstanding scores were achieved, but all those who participated greatly enjoyed the experience, and, I am sure, would wish to express their thanks to Mr. R. C. Pollard, who devoted so much of his time to the supervision of firing practices. It is to be hoped that, in future years, Shooting will once again become the important and keenly-competitive activity that it has been in the past, and will re-establish the extremely high standards of former years.

In conclusion, may those who follow be keen of eye and true of aim, both on the Range and in their futures generally.

The Recreational Shooting Scores of 34 Cadets are on record — too many to quote here: but the leaders of Group "A" were Cousens I (86), Hardy I (83) and Langdon (81): of Group "B", Tait (81), Fitzgerald (76) and Hargiss I (74). The scores given are their Term Averages.

Crossed Rifles and Crown (ten scores over 90% on "22" Range) were gained by Cousens I and Cousens II.

THE BAND

The Band this year has worked hard and well deserved the applause received on the occasions of its public parades.

Starting with five buglers and five drummers, it was enlarged to its former size by the addition of a new tenor section and four more buglers. A new pair of cymbals was also acquired and the "lead" bugle given a new coat of silver.

The traditional Band display at the Annual Inspection came off very smoothly and was a great success. The Sunset Ceremony was the final parade of the year, and the climax of a season's determination by each bandsman to maintain the tradition set by his predecessors.

I would like to thank each member of the Band for his efforts, and to wish the very best of luck to all Bands of the years to come.

Andrew J. Timmis, Drum Major.

FIRST AID

This year First Aid was again a compulsory subject for all first-year Cadets. But, although the course was not started until just before Christmas, owing to greater emphasis on cadet fundamentals, it was generally followed with enthusiasm which was only slightly dampened when the usual highlight of the course, the First Aid Display, was replaced by a P.T. Display under Mr. Arscott.

As during last year, each Platoon was instructed as a separate group, under Platoon Sergeants Roberts and Genge and C.S.M. Green.

In closing we would like to thank the Matrons and Mr. Storr for assisting in supplying bandages and medical charts, Mr. Genge for duplicating both tests and notes and, lastly, Dr. Spicer, who examined the Cadets on completion of the course.

Good Luck to next year's Classes and Instructors!

John H. Green, C.S.M.

NOTE: Final Examinations were held in June. Information has reached us that, of the 55 candidates, 52 passed. —Ed.

EXPLORERS' CLUB

The highlight of this year's camping trips was a climb to the summit of Mount Arrowsmith. We camped at 5,000 feet, and three of the party climbed the last 1,000 feet to the peak.

This Spring a Junior Group tried to repeat the climb, but had to be content with surviving in snow and sub-freezing temperatures at 4,000 feet. Everyone stood up to this well.

Three more informal trips were made to China Beach, mainly with Juniors. Group camps were made from panchos and wood, many fires lit and some relatively wholesome meals cooked. We have all learned much about survival out-of-doors.

R. J. C.

PROJECTION CLUB

This year has proved a very successful one for the Club, in all respects. Not only did we receive some first-class "movies," but we also showed some very excellent educational and sports "shorts." Dr. Strange-Love and Lawrence of Arabia will indicate the high calibre of our programme. The older members, Dykes, Seeger and Hughes, were joined by some reliable and efficient new members, Ward, Sommers and Lenfesty. The standard of projection has been very high, and the members have been most enthusiastic.

Our thanks must go to Mr. Catchpole for all his time and effort given to us. His assistance has helped greatly to make this year's Club the success that it was. We wish to extend good wishes to next year's Club, and we hope that they will keep up the good work and maintain our well-established standards.

Colin A. M. Dykes, President.

MUSIC

We began the school year wondering what material we could find for the School Choir. Boys who had done well the previous year had not returned; but, as is often the case, things turned out better than we had anticipated, new recruits being available in Grade VII. After a lengthy period of "Scales" etc., the Choir did take shape — so much so that at Christmas the Carol Service was probably of a much higher standard than those of most city churches. Much of the credit must go to Bill Dyson, of whom more later.

The Carol Service was definitely of a very high calibre. Trumpeters from H.M.C.S. Naden opened the Service with a Fanfare, accompanied some of the better known carols and provided a thrilling Descant for the closing "O Come, All Ye Faithful."

The Chapel Choir made no small contribution. Augmented by tenors and basses from St. John's Church, they gave a very fine rendering of Berlioz' "Shepherd's Farewell," and produced some spirited singing in the Russian Carol "Torches" and the quietly beautiful Basque Carol "The Infant King." (Shades of King's at Cambridge!). It must also be noted that the junior boys had come down very faithfully and uncomplainingly, most lunch hours, to practise for this and other events. They were rewarded however, at Christmas, with hot dogs and all the trimmings!

Bill Dyson has already been mentioned. A Day Boy, and a member of Christ Church Cathedral Choir, he possesses a naturally-lovely voice and the necessary musicianship to go with it. A lot of the credit for last year's good Choir must go to Bill. His attitude towards Chapel Music definitely fired the enthusiasm of the Juniors, and we congratulate him on the fine work which he did in Victoria during the Summer months. This is not the place to list his activities, but very few boys of his age have sung as Soloists on the C.B.C., during the Universities' Music Festival and at the McPherson Playhouse, all in one short season. In the course of the school year we heard from him in the following:

Remembrance Day "Pie Jesu," from Fauré's Requiem
Christmas "The Shepherds' Farewell" (Berlioz)
Easter "O that my ways" (Maurice Greene)
Speech Day.... "The Sun shall be no more thy light" (Maurice Greene)

Another Service of note was one which we hope will become an annual event — a Festival Service of the boy choirs of Victoria. This was held at the beginning of the Summer Term, and we managed to get together a Choir of approximately 120 voices, of whom 60-70 were boy trebles. After weeks of arduous practice the group assembled for the first time as a whole a mere two hours before the service. It was easy to see at that practice how well things were going to go; and the service itself was fine indeed. The music included a Stanford setting of the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, Charles Wood's "O Thou the Central Orb," Handel's "O Lovely Peace" and a solo from Dyson. The Chapel should have been packed for this service.

In other fields of musical endeavour the picture was not too good. Of the eight boys who were taking the trumpet two years ago only one returned this year, and no recruits were found for this instrument. The piano class held twelve boys until the Summer term, when, with the long days and the sports activities, the number dropped to four.

There should be much more music in the School than there is. We have the facilities in the "Music House," and parents should encourage their boys to take up some kind of instrument, bearing in mind that a well-rounded boy is one who is good at his studies, is proficient in the field of sport and has not neglected the very important "cultural" side of life.

ART

Even an incurable optimist would not expect to find in a school the size of ours more than one or two boys with professional potential as fine pianists or violinists. It is precisely the same in the sphere of Art. The Art Master thinks himself blessed by Heaven if he has one potentially "good" artist and two or three potentially "competent" ones.

The past school year has produced approximately that number — one potentially "good," and three or four potentially "competent," but unlikely to continue in a grade higher than the amateur one.

The standard of the remaining art pupils is, however, another matter. Thus, appreciation of Art is really the aim of our instruction — "learning by doing." To this end, it is hoped gradually to gather enough "scrap-book" material on the Art Room walls to illustrate the history of Art Ancient and Modern. With this in view, donations of prints and cuttings would be most gratefully received by the Art Master.

As an incentive to interest a system of merit marking has been introduced. This system has as its prize a trip to Vancouver Art Gallery and a day in Vancouver towards the end of the School year.

The group of winners in 1965 was fortunate in being able to see a travelling exhibition of Time Cover-Artists' work, as well as the Emily Carr collection and the rest of the permanent Vancouver exhibition.

The Senior Drawing Prize went to John Strander, and the Junior to Ray Dickens — well-merited in both cases, though it was a close decision where the senior prize was concerned.

THE LIBRARY

As in previous years, the Library has very successfully met the demands of the School.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Pollard, many new volumes were obtained and subscriptions arranged for our benefit. The Ladies Auxiliary also purchased and donated numerous new and used books on a wide variety of subjects. Much emphasis this year has been placed on subscriptions to sports magazines, which have been greatly enjoyed.

Thanks go to the Librarians for their efficient work over the past ten months.

Terry C. Price.

BARNACLE HOUSE

A happy disposition was evident in the House during the School Year. We were usually successful in the many inter-House competitions, and finished very well with a convincing win on Sports Day.

I know I speak for the whole House when I say that we wish Mr. Mugridge the best of luck in his new University career. We know that he will do well, and we will be looking forward to hearing from him from time to time.

I would like to wish next year's House the best of good fortune and to extend particularly my best wishes to last year's senior members who will be carrying on the difficult task of prefectship. Good luck, and keep the standard high!

Donald B. Macdonald, Captain of House.

BOLTON HOUSE

Much thanks must go to Mr. Wilson, our Housemaster, who is proceeding to St. Andrew's, in Ontario, to continue teaching; also to Mr. Arscott. Under their guidance Bolton has at last risen to dominate School activities.

The House won all Inter-House competitions, with the exception of Track and Cricket. We were extremely strong in Basketball, Cross Country and Gymnastics. The Senior Rugby Team, minus two of its key men, managed to hold Barnacle to a draw, while the Junior Team defeated Winslow.

This year the House finally showed some spirit and enthusiasm in the organization of the School Newspaper, the Dances and the Debates, and in all such matters adding to the general happiness of the School.

The House has had a great year, and we see no reason why those returning should not uphold our traditions on the Field, in the Class room and in the School as a whole.

Peter C. Wilde, Captain of House.

WINSLOW HOUSE

In the second year of its conception Winslow House has had a very promising career. On Speech Day the House took more than its fair share of awards. Athletically, however, we have not yet been able to compete on the same footing as our two rivals, but both have found Day Boys ready to participate in all activities and to give Barnacle and Bolton a "run for their money."

A great vote of thanks must be paid to Mr. Wenman, our Housemaster, without whose guidance the House would have had a hard time.

To those returning we wish the best of fortune, and sincerely hope that they will keep up our growing tradition.

Eric B. Kjekstad, Captain of House.

HARVEY HOUSE

At the beginning of the year the House welcomed Mr. Pollard, as Housemaster, and Mr. Allen and Mr. Keighley to the resident staff, Mr. Mugridge emigrating to the Senior School.

The House had a very pleasant and eventful year. Debates, Table Tennis Tournaments, Chess Matches, Model Competitions and Projects were all in evidence, and this year saw the reintroduction of a literary magazine, The Blotted Line, the sale of which, on Sports Day, raised $45.00 for Oxfam.

The Senior Prefects, Hunter, Fields, Chaworth-Musters and Stephenson, carried out their difficult jobs well, ably assisted by Barker II and Brinkley, the two Dormitory Captains.

Various performances deserve special mention: Smith II, for his success in the Swimming Team, Andrews II, for winning the Junior Cross Country, Hargiss II, for his Gymnastics and Watkins II, who won both the Junior and Senior Tennis Tournaments.

For the first time for many years the Chapman Cup went to a Day Boy, Dyson, and deservedly so. Incidentally, his singing in the Chapel delighted us all.

At the end of the year the House lost Mr. Catchpole, who has gone to Nepal to work for the United Nations' Refugee Organization. He will be very much missed, and we wish him luck.

LADIES AUXILIARY

Public spirit and modesty rarely go hand in hand these days, and it has been pleasant to find the Ladies Auxiliary to University School breaking the general rule. This most excellent body is industrious indeed, but rather retiring, and the Editors have been unable to wrest from it written details of its activities over the past school year.

Nevertheless we are fully aware of such arrivals as Pool Tables for Lounges, Books for Libraries, Funds for Prizes, etc., etc.; and our intelligence service has also gathered that there are many more projects under consideration, ranging from Equipment for Laboratories to (at the other end of the cultural scale) Robes for Choir Boys.

No acknowledgments would be adequate, but —

Maximae Matronis debentur gratiae.

OLD BOYS' NOTES

DALZIEL (1953-57) — From time to time, but none too often, we are visited by R. R. Dalziel. "Spike" is taking Law at U.B.C., but this Summer he has returned to Watson Lake, where he guides those who wish to travel weary miles in search of big game.

DENNIS (1920-28) — "Mike" Dennis was rediscovered when he paid a most welcome visit during the Summer Term. He is in business in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

HAMBER (1928-31) — Eric Hamber paid a fleeting visit late in the Summer Term. He is still living in Frankfurt, West Germany, and flying for Lufthansa.

HARTLEY (1908) — G. Hartley paid his first visit since leaving University School. For many years he has been living in New Zealand, and he served with the Forces of that country in both Wars. He attended University School when it was situated at the corner of Richmond Road and Oak Bay Avenue, and when, in 1908, the Cadet Corps marched to the present site for the laying of the cornerstone, he was responsible for the beating of the big drum in the Band. Hartley is an Old Queen's School Boy

McFARLAND (1915-21) — Contact has been re-established with E. R. McFarland. Ernie is the Managing Director of Interior Breweries in Creston, B.C. It is rumoured that certain Old Boys have inspected the plant recently, and acquired more than a nodding acquaintance with the product.

McMULLEN (1929-33) — Sidney McMullen was run to earth in Victoria on one of his quick trips from Calgary. He hopes to visit us when the Old Boys have their reunion in November.

PHILLIPS (1926-27) — Brig. H. A. Phillips has been appointed Colonel of the Regiment, Royal Canadian Dragoons. "Buster" Phillips entered R.M.C. from University School, and graduated in 1931. He served with the 5th. Canadian Armoured and 1st. Canadian Infantry Divisions during the Second World War, and was Canadian Attaché in Moscow (1957-59).

PRICE (1949-51) — Edmond Price has recently returned from Australia, from a position with the Canadian Trade Commission. He has now been posted to Athens, Greece.

MARRIAGES

- GREENHOUSE (1953-56) — J. P. Greenhouse to Penelope Jane Jefferies, at Ickenham, Middlesex, England, on December 17th., 1964. M. C. L. GERRY (1953-56) was the Best Man.
- LEGG-WILLIS (1947-51) — D. E. R. Legg-Willis to Edith Mary Leveson-Gower, at Silvertown, Exeter, Devonshire, England, on January 4th., 1965.
- STENE (1958-62) — G. D. Stene to Karen Maria Wientjes, at Vancouver, B.C., on August 28th., 1965.
- STIDHAM (1957-60) — H. C. Stidham to Rose Marie Patchett, at Everett, Washington, U.S.A., on November 7th., 1964.
- SYMONS (1952-55) — P. E. K. Symons to Despina Pirovolidou, at Athens, Greece, on December 27th., 1964.
- WATSON (1957-62) — H. W. Watson to Mary Fran Forrest, at Lincoln, Nebraska, U.S.A., on June 5th., 1965.
- WENMAN (1951-59) — J. R. G. Wenman to Ann Pearson, at Perth, Western Australia, on September 10th., 1965.
- WILLIAMS (1952-55) — D. A. S. Williams to Catherine Elizabeth Shale, at Victoria, B.C., on May 23rd., 1965.

BIRTHS

- BOAS — To Mr. and Mrs. C. Boas, on May 13th., 1965, at Victoria, B.C., a daughter.
- CUPPAGE — To Mr. and Mrs. B. E. B. Cuppage, on November 30th., 1964, at Port Alberni, B.C., a daughter.
- LEGG — To Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Legg, on June 2nd., 1965, at Vancouver, B.C., a son.

DEATHS

- BELL-IRVING (1908-11) — A. D. Bell-Irving, on April 24th., 1965, in Vancouver. Duncan Bell-Irving had a distinguished career in the First World War, both in the Royal Flying Corps and the R.C.A.F. He took a prominent part in the formation of the R.C.A.F., and during the Second World War commanded Stations in Saskatchewan and Ontario before retiring as Air Commodore. He was one of the founders of the Air Cadet League of Canada.
- HANBURY (1910-12) — E. H. Hanbury, on May 30th., 1965, in Victoria. Evan Hanbury was a First World War Veteran.
- POOLE (1909-11) — H. A. Poole, in May 1964, in Vancouver. He was an Old Queen's School Boy.
- POYNTZ (1924-33) — R. L. K. Poyntz, in October 1964, in Victoria. Bob Poyntz was prominent in all branches of athletics while at University School, and in his final year was Captain of Cricket.

TISDALL (1920-21) — E. P. Tisdall, Rear-Admiral, R.C.N., in March 1965, in Victoria.

WESTMACOTT — R. B. Westmacott joined the Staff in 1925, and left in 1933. He taught English in the Upper School and took an active interest in Rugby and Tennis. He passed away on May 8th., 1965.

WOLFE (1919-24) — N. G. H. Wolfe, on June 2nd., 1965, in Victoria. Noel Wolfe saw service during the War in China, India, Burma and Ceylon. At one stage he was a Subaltern with the 5th. Gurkhas, and later served under Lord Mountbatten in Force 136, rising to the rank of Lieut.-Colonel and gaining a M.I.D.
